Wedding of Geo. B. Kluegel and Miss Nellie McIntyre.

George B. Kluegel yesterday became the husband of the accomplished and popular young lady, Miss Nellie Mc-Intyre.

The wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Robert Lewers, on Ke-walo street, the bride being a friend and intimate of the Lewers family.
There was a prodigious display of flowers and the wedding took place under a bower of them. The ceremony itself was simple. Mr. Robert Lewers gave away the bride. Miss Harriet Lewers was the bridesmaid and Mr. Arthur Wall was the best man.

Rev. John P. Erdman performed the ceremony. He stood in the bay window at the north side of the parlor.
Over his head were festoons of mail, making the window appear very picturesque. It was here that he received the contracting parties. On his left golden shower, palms and maiden hair were banded up and arranged very tastefully. Maiden hair and carnations were also piled on the piano, producing a very striking effect.

Those present at the ceremony were Mrs. P. G. Taylor, Mrs. Alice Brown, Misses Lulu and Jane Winne, Miss Harriet Lewers, Mr. Robert Lewers, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Winne and Messrs.
Harry Penhallow, Arthur Wall, John P. Erdman, Ed Taylor and Henry Taylor.

The bride's costume was a very simple and tasteful affair of white chiffon over white satin. The yoke and sleeves were tucked. A tulle of white chiffon was worn draped from the shoulders and added a very pretty effect to the gown. The whole dress was trimmed in passementerie, the skirt being ruffled in a very artistic manner.

The bridesmaid was in low neck, the gown being made of white organdy over blue silk. There was a lace bolero over pink satin, adding a very tasteful effect to the dress.

In the interim, while the guests were waiting, after the ceremony, the Hawaiian sextette rendered an excellent program.

Miss Harriet Lewers and Mrs. George Paris received the guests. The following were the friends who congratulated the young couple: Mr. G. H.
Kluegel, Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs.
Winne, the Misses Winne, Master Winne, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Ed Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mr.

gan, Miss Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Jack mon, Miss Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. W.

Brigham, Mr. Guy Dennison, Miss Reynolds.

Miss Nellie McIntyre, the bride, is a well known trained nurse and is an accomplished young woman. The groom is a son of Charles F. Kluegel, a civil engineer on the Oahu railroad, and a young business man of this city.

Superintendent of Public Works McCandless Will Prepare a Comfortable Home for Judges.

In his absence Superintendent of Public Works, McCandless had a change of heart. He has had a conference with Judge Estee and will do the work that the judge wants in the main courtroom, save supplying the matting and desks.

Judge Estee is delighted with this change, and yesterday was in a rather happy frame of mind. "I have just had a consultation with Mr. McCandless and am glad to say that he has determined that he can make the repairs to the courtroom that are in the main desired. That is, he will put in doors and railings and all that, and I hope to hold court in there this week."

Meantime, Judge Estee is unpacking his library, and under the personal direction of Miss Ryan, his private secretary, who is herself a most capable lawyer, the books are being arranged on the recently improvised shelving.
The judge's library is a large one, including most of the reports of the states and all of those of the federal courts and will be found valuable to local practitioners. The judge hopes to be comfortably located in his new office by the end of the week.

The rooms for United States Marshal Baird are being put in shape, being now in the hands of the painters, and will be ready in a few days for occupancy.
District Attorney Baird's rooms are in statu quo, Mr. Baird being ill.

THE LAUPAHOEHOE TROUBLES EXPLAINED.

The Hilo Tribune has the following correspondence, which seems to be self-explanatory.

Mr. Editor: Sir—Please allow me to make the following correction to your statement of the "Laupahoehoe Trouble."

The facts of the case are these: The Japs have been very surly and wanted impossibilities granted them. The manager of the plantation (L. S. C.), C. McMenan, gave them the ultimatum of either going to work or to leave the camp and plantation premises and to go away. They had agreed to go to work on the Monday when the trouble occurred. Mr. Shore, the head overseer, went up to the camp to see if they had gone to work, and when he got there they refused to work and immediately after assaulted him with hoses, clubs and cane knives, inflicting some very nasty wounds upon his body, and he then escaping got out of the house and notified the manager of what had happened. The manager then telephoned to me and I went up to the scene and swore in a posse, surrounded the premises and took some twenty old men into custody and brought them to Laupahoehoe jail. On the following day I arrested nine more men implicated in the assault upon Mr.
Shore.

On Wednesday we tried them in court with the following result: Twenty-four convictions out of thirty arrests as follows: The ringleaders were sentenced to eighteen months hard labor, of whom there were two, one for one year, one for nine months, five $50 each, one $25 and the rest $10 each.

On the following Friday a general strike on the plantation took place, which fortunately ended without any serious consequences, as the strikers were told to either leave the plantation premises or go to work. They all went to work, thereby ending the strike.

Am pleased to say that at present there are no apprehensions of any dissatisfaction, and everything has again quieted down to the general routine.
Hoping you will find space in your paper for the above, I remain yours respectfully,
L. S. SWAIN
Deputy Sheriff North Hilo.
